

Building Video Literacy: Framing

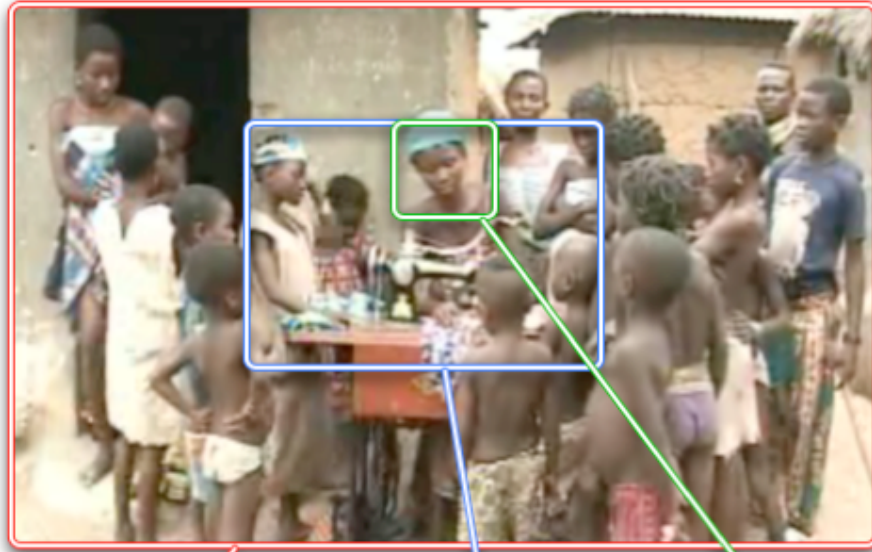

What do you know now about what's happening in this picture?

What else would you need to see to know where this is and what's going on?

Can you identify the types of shots shown below?

zooming in and out in a video -- or cropping a still image

What do you know about what's happening in this picture?

What does the part that's left out add to your knowledge?